We Dedicate

to
"Phessor"

He came to Pahokee in 1940, and since that time he has developed the band into one of which we are proud. He has served as school treasurer for several years, keeping all our money straight. He has taught regular classes in addition to the band and his music students. For his patience, integrity, guidance, and friendship, we the Senior Class, dedicate the 1951 Devil's Trail to Mr. Robert O. Lampi, Bandmaster.

We Chart

Here it is in pictures—the story of a Senior year full of activity. Like the medieval advance to knighthood, our progress has been in several stages—from freshman to senior. Just for fun, let's look at some typical shots around school and some very "un-typical" ones. Yes, we posed a few, but they only prove that our modern development towards intelligent citizenship in America isn't so different from the education of some unknown yet heroic European student of the lance, the long bow, or the legions of gallantry.

At long last Richard receives his final knighting (crowning?) when Mr. Canipe presents him his diploma—Not exactly a title of "Sir Richard" will follow, but we won't forget to respect that sheepskin in the years to come.

At the close of the school day students rush out for their seats on the bus to go home.

The respected seven are honored at the pep rally before the Big Game—November, 1950—Those coaches look surprised as they receive gifts from the team. The best gift would be a victory for the boys in blue, but we settled for a well fought tie.

Our Work

Our gallant Sir Chandler on his brown and white charger (as you can see from his shiny armour) is well prepared to battle any one who challenges a member of the Senior Class. Charge!

There is seriousness as well as fun in the classrooms as Miss Smith demonstrates the art of sewing a straight seam. Better look on, girls! A good seamstress may be needed when the "brains" in the Chemistry lab create a new explosive and blow themselves to bits. From armour suits to atoms in three easy photos!

Our Fun

Here's a glimpse at the Royal Court in the Great Hall—Room No. 9, and our king Sidney giving orders to his subjects as the prosecution of some inattentive courtiers takes place.

Lots of action is witnessed on the athletic field as Alfred grabs the ball and races for a touchdown. Physical excellence has always been admired.

And don't forget the entertaining Junior play "Take Your Medicine." "Santa Claus", "tem-perature" and giggling Gloria will remain in our memories as will the grumbling millionaire, the loving couple and the hospital staff. The show goes on!

Our Progress

We even had the background for a medieval romance. (Substitute a scooter for the traditional white charger). Our own Romeo and Juliet—Joan and Trevette—pose for the balcony love scene.

Plenty of pep and energy describes the students as they parade before the Belle Glade-Pahokee game. Rivalry surely provides stimulus. So does beauty and polish. Here's our Senior Royalty all dolled up for the tea honoring the Senior parents and the faculty.

That was the first entertainment of its kind undertaken by a Senior class. It was quite a success. Maybe it will become a tradition.

Through the Years

There were those days we rushed to the Library and frantically checked out books before the book report deadline—and what good did it do? We seldom had time to read them anyway. We do appreciate the just credit our library received from the long awaited "Evaluation committee".

Below is a pretty pose by two groups of our girls. The Cheerleaders make a mighty nice show at games and pep rallies, and our F. F. A. contest is a yearly highlight featuring the choices of each grade. At a very gay square dance Donna Jo Spooner was crowned Valentine Queen and she was attended by worthy maidens Lovda, Eleanor, Billie Nelle, and Janette. Nice scenery, eh?

From Junior High

In that English IV book we read of "scops", "minstrels", "jesters", "jokers",—yes, and even "fools". Of course, the gallant brotherhood of Seniors had its share of them. The royal retinue of court clowns stars the two "wittiest" "the pet" and "the pest" of the class. They are expecting a call to appear in the Royal Court of England soon. Maybe that's a good place to send them—away!

David isn't really insane down there. He's just acting at poor Buddy's expense. You guessed it, we're still "Taking Our Medicine."

Climaxing the football season, our sponsors and captains witness—with sorrow—the presentation of the trophy to the Belle Glade football team. We lose without loss of honor, though.

Till Graduation Days

What's this? "No Students Allowed" and the Seniors can't bear to stay away from P. H. S. It's a seige of the fortress of knowledge. Charles sounds the call to charge while three weary defenders battle off the rag mop-and-broom attack at the ancient portal. Frank is a casualty, but consider the cause

Seems he recovered in time to join his fellow reporters on Tuesday ("paper day.") The journalism class breezes into action, making history in the pages of The Pahokee News and this Devil's Trail.

In another department Mr. Brooks gives those future farmers some big ideas about fertilizer. Better learn now, fellows, one of these days you'll need to know all that, and more

And a Hopeful Future

That fellow caged represents, of course, those Golden Rams we tried so hard to pen. This was another gala float in the big pre-game parade. Maybe it could mean the Seniors have the world all ready and waiting to be conquered. Here's hoping that's what the future brings—success and happiness.

We peek at a typical post-school band practice and it isn't hard to visualize how snappy and trim that bunch will look when they're dressed up and really strutting the practiced results of many hours' hard work.

Students in the Commercial room prepare themselves for that hoped-for above success. Hit those typewriters, now! and fast!

Seniors of 1951

Richard Tillis, Myra Lee Cruthirds, Chandler McIlwain,
Joann Rosenberg, Janet Adams, Sidney Caruthers.

Well, we finally reached the rank of Knight, and our senior year is over. We like to look back on the wonderful times we had at dances, parties, and our senior skip-day. Each one of us enjoyed every minute of it, including the little disagreements we had in class.

We will always remember how well we were guided by our Sponsor, Miss Evans, and officers: President, Sidney Caruthers, Vice-President, Myra Lee Cruthirds, Secretary, Janet Adams, Treasurer, Joann Rosenberg, Reporter, Richard Tillis; and Watchdog, Chandler McIlwain.

Some of the memories we will cherish for many years to come were our Senior play, our party in the woods during the Christmas holidays, the fun we all had when we worked on this The 1951 Devil's Trail, the way our journalism class rushed around on Tuesday afternoon to meet the dead-line for the Pahokee News, and the way "Gus" kept us all laughing in English Class.

SENIOR SNAPS

Ladies In Waiting

To form the link between school and home, to help us in our many activities, to lead us through a fuller year these are the reasons we chose room mothers. We wish to express our deep appreciation for the chaperonage, the parties and the help these parents have given us

CONTEMPORARIES OF OUR DAY

Seniors at work. Sounds good, doesn't it? But don't let this photo fool you! Note our pals on the blackboard!

Class History

What's all the excitement? Do you want to know what it's about? Well, we are the "Seniors" and it's our last year of school. Sit down and let me tell you our story.

Our official history began when we entered high school as green-very green-freshmen. Our president was Sidney Caruthers, Vice President, Jackie Thomas, Secretary Anna Lee Hurt, Treasurer, Myra Lee Cruthirds, and Watch Dog, Chandler McIlwain. We spent our time learning the ropes of high school life.

At the beginning of our Sophomore year we lost most of our shyness and looked on the brighter side of life. Officers were President, Charles Sears, Vice President, Myra Lee Cruthirds, Secretary and Treasurer, Carol Snyder, and Watch Dog, Chandler McIlwain. This was the wonderful year of 1949, when we won the Belle Glade game. It was also the first year in the history of Pahokee that the Sophomores had money in the treasury.

Then we were Juniors and what a year! The Junior officers were President, Sidney Caruthers, Vice-President, Chandler McIlwain, Secretary, Janet Adams. Treasurer, Jackie Thomas, Business Managers, Joann Rosenberg and Dale Maxwell. In order to earn money for the Junior-Senior Prom, we sold magazine subscriptions, sponsored dances, and sold drinks and hot dogs at the football games. For the first time, the Juniors produced a play. It was one of the finest plays that have been given in Pahokee High School. The play "Here Comes Charlie" was a great success. The money went towards the Junior Senior Prom. We decorated the Elks Club like a Southern Plantation and we showed the seniors that we could give them a wonderful banquet. This was the exciting year we got our class rings, and you can bet we were proud of them.

Finally the day came that we were dignified and sophisticated Seniors. Our president for his third time was Sidney Caruthirds, Vice-President, Myra Lee Cruthirds, Secretary, Janet Adams, Treasurer, Joann Rosenberg, Reporter, Richard T. This. Our most important undertaking was the publication of our annual which we found no easy matter. We had a wonderful football team which won all the games but two and tied Clewiston and Belle Glade. We were the first class to have a party for the faculty and our room mothers.

None of us will forget the memories of one another and the grand times we have shared.

We, the Seniors of 1951, want to thank our sponsor, Miss Ruth Evans, for her guidance, companionship as a teacher, and a friend. We would also like to thank our room mothers, Mrs. Uceba Caruthers, Mrs. Earl Maxson, Mrs. Bil Jones and Mrs. J. E. Williams for all they have done for us.

Now you have heard our story and what all the excitement is about, for we are graduating. Don't forget that story, and don't forget us.

The year is drawing to a close. As it ends, so end the many activities of the Junior Class. We have had a busy year with our Class Play, operating the refreshment stands at football games, sponsoring Sadie Hawkins Day, selling magazines, and giving the Junior-Senior Prom, but these are just stepping stones to prepare us for our big year next year when we will be Seniors.

We were led through our activities and greatly helped by our Sponsors, Miss Constance Smith and Mr. Herbert Miller. Our class officers President, Dick Atkins, Vice-President, Mac Lynn, Secretary, Myra Baxter; Treasurer, Ada Tillman, Business Managers, Mac Lynn and Patsy Elliott and Watch Dog Carney Wilder did much to make our class successful, and we look forward with great anticipation for the day when we will be Seniors.

We were led this year by President, Calvin Padgett; Vice-President, Ann Atkins; Secretary, Eleanor Walker; Treasurer, Thelma Vann; Reporter, Danny Mullis.

This is our second year of high school, and we really have enjoyed it. We worked hard this year in the contest for the Halloween King and Queen and we won. We were really thrilled to see Sylvia Wilson and Lewis Collins crowned. This stirred everyone up, so we plan to do even bigger things next year when we become Juniors. We are proud that our annual Sophomore-Senior dance was successful. We wish to thank our sponsors, Mr. Ned Kocher and Mrs. Donald Weeks, for helping us have such a successful and happy year.

Second Row: Russell Million, Chuck Elliott.

We were proud and excited to be in our first year of high school and represent our Freshman class. Our biggest event was our Christmas party. We were glad to have had as our sponsors Mr. William Howard and Miss Geraldine Hicks who carried us through a successful Freshman year.

We were young and inexperienced, but we've learned a lot in one year, so we expect three bigger and better ones to come.

Our officers were: President, Ann Thompson; Vice-President, Stella Sue Barnes; Secretary, Lovda Williams; Treasurer, Chuck Elliott; and Reporter, Russell Million.

1951 DEVIL'S TRAIL

Here you see the Devil's Trail staff hard at work. Dale talks over the advertising section with Janette and Bobby, business managers. Skipper seems worried over his ads sales.

Myra Lee is figuring out original ideas for the pictures of Superlatives. The typists, Marlene, Betty Jane, Janet and Joan are doing quite well considering they have only one typewriter! Deeply engrossed in the study of tournaments and quests is Charles, Sports editor. Chandler and Richard are comparing snaps for the annual.

Puzzled yet cheerful, Joann and Anna Lee plan the clubs and organizations pages. Sidney and Joan Benton are counting the circulation sales. Frank, assistant editor, seems to be reading, Macbeth no doubt! Carol, Senior editor, chewing quite happily on her pencil is seeking information on the activities of Zela who had a job in both advertising and circulation. Last but not least, is our artist, Richard. He appears at his wits end over his drawings. He is responsible for the nice illustrations which bring out our theme of Medieval days and ways.

The annual staff had a hard job to do but through the co operation of the staff, the class and our faculty advisor, Miss Evans, published this 1951 Devil's Trail. Hope you like it!

The Blue Devils suffered their first loss of the season against South Broward 12-0. Here the Blue Devils charge down on a Broward back. This was the Devil's fifth game.

Bill Hatton carries the ball against Gesu. Everyone made good his chance that night and Pahokee blasted the Miamians 54-7.

SNAPS LEFT ON THE EDITOR'S DESK

1. Pep up boys! We'll get those Tigers next year! 2. Miss Smith does not seem to know that these young ladies will be old maids. 3. A certain calm presentation of a flower doesn't begin to express the gratitude the Seniors have for Mrs. Miller's able direction of "So Very Young." 4. This might be in a play, but it isn't the only time they act this way. 5. Notice after the Devils get up, the victim stays down. 6. Future statesmen, learning the arts of the game.

"So Very Young"

"Uncle Arch" Rozelle casually hands the all-important business card to the worried father, "Skipper" while bidding Mrs. Chambers a farewell.

As the curtain falls, Eva Mae and "Skipper" recall the days when they were "so very young" and they leaped head on into a happy, lasting marriage.

Harrassed husband and puzzled Pat cringe while the weeping women wail over the problems of marriage, money and motherhood —And this was only the beginning.

March 8-9

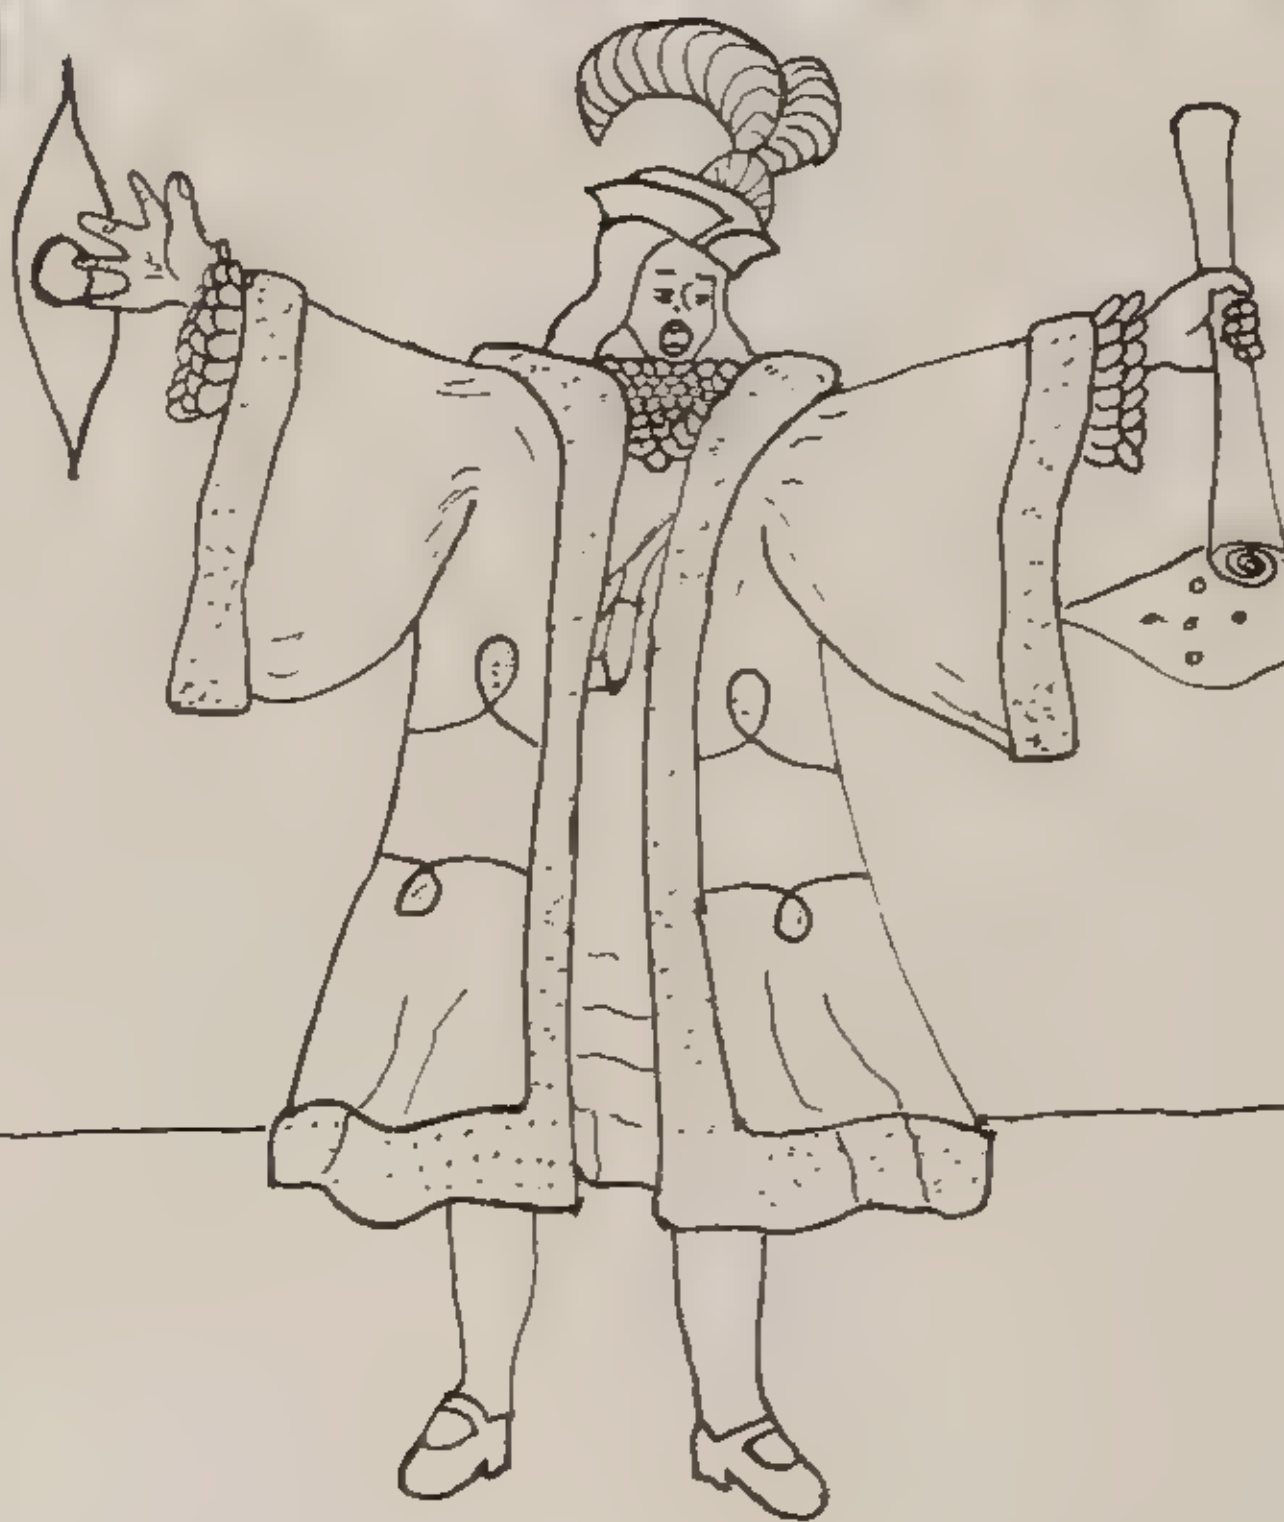

As Rupert stands off in a daze thinking of his own love life, the young girls anxiously discuss June's approaching marriage. Belva, the spinster next door, warns of the big step young folks are taking by getting married, while Aunt Kate, the wealthy member of the family, agrees wholeheartedly.

Pat very sincerely expresses his love and affection for Ann as he places the moon stone engagement ring on her finger. Although they know the Chambers won't approve, the young couple has no idea of the trouble they are about to meet. Things really begin to happen!!!

June explains to Aunt Kate her plans for college, marriage, and a family, while Frances, Ann's older married sister tells her mother how she and Jay got the loan for their home. Father has just made a deal with Pat's Uncle Arch, The A. Albert Monroe, and urges Ann and Pat to be married immediately. Looks like all are happy except Belva who lectures on young marriages while Rupert listens very inattentively !!!

The Prophecy

After receiving our final knighting at graduation, we, the Seniors of 1951, gave our farewells and very anxiously entered into the new life that awaited us. Now, in 1961, the knights and their ladies are together once again at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Trevette Weeks.

Courtesy is forgotten. Everyone is trying to speak at once and tell of his success, achievements, and experiences since we were last all together ten years ago.

Our host and hostess, Joan and Vette, are multi-millionaires and are spending the winter here in their luxurious home on Kreamer Island. They tell us they made their fabulous fortune renting motor scooters to couples wishing to elope.

Joan mentions that some of their recent customers were Carol Snyder and Steve, however, the wedding plans were called off after Carol insisted on taking a route through Sebring. Wonder why!!!

Janet Adams, whom we see drinking a "coca cola", is still employed by the local 5 and 10 cent store. We are surprised to hear that Betty Jane Barber, who broke her engagement when we were seniors, remains unmarried.

The head coach at Section 4½, Bobby Peacock regretfully informs us that his two star players Charles "Choo Choo" Lairsey and Edard "Engine" Culberson could not be here due to serious head injuries received last week when they collided with the city garbage truck driven by Frank "Stinky" Rosenberg. Frank is reported uninjured.

We see a group gathered and laughter fills the room. We look to see who is in the middle of the party. Joan Ryals, our wittiest senior girl. She says her friends Betty Jean Hoyle and Verne L. Browning have done quite well. Vernell has a new auto plane her manager awarded her for batting 62 home runs last season for the Sandcut Avacado Pear ball club. Joan said "And I have a life contract to crack only jokes published by the Hoyle Joke Company!!"

Mrs. Billy Mosley, the former Eva Mae Rutherford tells of her happy married years since graduation. She says she owes her success as a housewife to her part as "Mother" in the Senior Class Play!

Chandler "Beef" McIlwain has achieved fame also!!! He is the only Willie Boo that can still do the "Willie Boo Boogie"!!! He appears nightly at the Tomaine Tavern, J. V. Thomas, proprietor.

C. Dale Maxwell, the movie magnet has announced that his latest production "Sally Permit Your Bangs to Droop" with Marlene "Chi-Chi" Williams and the Tillis Brothers is a huge success. He also reminds us that Gus and Dick are the highest paid hillbilly singers in Hollywood.

After 10 years of apprenticeship Charles Holmes has earned the position as assistant floor sweeper at the old billiards parlor now owned by George Rozelle.

As Anna Lee and Skipper McCurdy leave, they call back that they'll meet us at the show. They have to rush home and put their football team to bed. You remember they were voted most likely to succeed..!

As conversation has quieted down a bit Mrs. Weeks brings out her scrap book and tells us of the interesting clippings she has kept concerning her former classmates.

Bobby "Love 'em and Leave 'em" Mackey has made the headlines. He was just arrested on a bigamist charge. "Looks like he forgot he had a wife and married two others" states Sheriff Jacob Weeks.

We see Ronnie Russom and Joan "Bubbles" Benton are now appearing at May's Madhouse. It seems Ronnie has made quite a reputation with his dancing dolls.

And these faces are familiar. Why, it's Patri Maxson and King Cornet, Charles Sears. They have just returned from a concert tour in Siberia where they achieved great fame playing "Sk Chopsticks."

Mrs. I. Beta Do, the former Joann "Rosie" Rosenberg tells us of several old classmates. Her former neighbor Richard Ogie, the human fish, is in Pago Pago where he is teaching the natives how to swim. Myra Lee Cruthirds was just released from prison after serving a term for stealing pencils from The Bankrupt Company. She tells us she heard that the Sims, Jones Acrobatic dancing team are in Chattahoochee. We wonder if they're entertaining or residing there ! ! !

As we ask Rosie about herself we learn that she is now divorcing her seventh husband. Her only comment was "I'm still looking for the perfect mate!"

We are reminded of the time, and must hurry in order to get to the theatre to see Janette Mathis and Seymour Caruthers in their latest play "One Careless Moment."
